Descendants of William CAUSEY Sr

First Generation

1. William CAUSEY Sr. was born on 17 Jul 1744 in Grant's Causeway, County Galway, Ireland and died on 3 Jul 1828 in Causey Springs Plantation, Berwick, Amite County, Mississippi at age 83.

General Notes: William enlisted in Capt. Richard Andrew's Company in the 14th Battalion of Militia, Caroline Co., MD and saw service until the close of the war. He was promoted to Captain of Infantry on Aug. 11, 1779. William Causey's 1961 DAR commemorative Mississippi gravestone is inscribed with "William Causey, Capt 14 BN Caroline Co Mil". A historical marker was placed by the Mississippi Department of Archives and History one-half mile north of Berwick, Amite Co., MS in recognition of his Revolutionary War service. Family legend tells that William and a brother served in the Revolution. This brother may be Ezekial Causey, who is also documented as Patriot and who settled in Georgia in the early 1800s. Several Georgia families came to Mississippi about the same time as did William Causey and married into the Causey Family.

(Sources: 'Family Records-Mississippi Revolutionary Solders,' by Alice Tracey Welch, p.57; (JHP)

William Causey joined the Patriotic cause of the War for Independence as a private and was shortly elected as an Ensign, an early junior infantry officer rank. He then rose to the rank of Captain of Infantry, serving under General Francis Marion, "The Swamp Fox", in South Carolina until that unit was disbanded following the war.

William Isiah Causey, son of James Malcolm Causey and grandson of William Causey, 1744-1828, was reported to have said in 1906 in T. C. Shilling's 'Abstract History of the Mississippi Baptist Association for One Hundred Years,' that his grandfather, "William Causey was born in Ireland in 1744 and came to America about the year 1760. He settled in Maryland and lived there until the Revolutionary War, serving through the conflict with General Marion. After the war he moved with his family to South Carolina and remained there until all the children were grown, of whom there were eleven. His wife dying in South Carolina, Mr. Causey came to Mississippi and married again, his second wife being Miss Susannah Jackson..." (page 27, The Centennial Session.) This story is essentially repeated in 'Texas and Texans,' pages 2346 to 2347 by the Reverend Thomas S. Causey, himself a descendant of William Causey, who no doubt read the earlier 1906 report.

A reported birth year for Susannah Smith of 1811 is inconsistent with her parents' marriage.
