General Notes: Wife of Thomas Jefferson "Jeff" Powers. Daughter of William Levi Carpenter and Martha "Mattie" Crawford

Her marriage registration to Rudolph Schenke in 1913 after Thomas Powers died in 1912 indicated that she was 35 years old, born abt 1878. This conflicts with our previous birth date in 1872. Of course, she could have lied about her age. She did not give her mother's name, but father was W. L. Carpenter and she used her maiden name.

Florence married Thomas Jefferson POWERS [2839] [MRIN: 967], son of William David POWERS [2841] and Marie Louise DEVILLE [2842], on 27 Sep 1883 in St. Landry Parish, Louisiana. His mother Martha at age 77, niece Euler Russell, at age 19, brother Alex at age 53 as a widower and nephew Calvin Carpenter at age 13 were living with him and his mother. His brother, Isaac Alexander's wife, Nancy Duplissey, didn't die until 1941 according to me records. I am obviously missing a sister who married a Russell.

William Carpenter's sister was living with him in the 1930 Evangeline Parish, LA census at age 49. She was a widow. I only have one sister on file for William. Alice O. Carpenter who married William M. Hebert, who died in 1934.

Man Shot by girl dies: Wielder of gun says she still is not sorry: Funeral at Bordelonville today.

Preliminary investigation into the fatal shooting last Friday morning [Sep. 10, 1936] of Norwood Carpenter was started Monday afternoon by Dr. Willis P. Butler, Caddo Parish coroner.

Carpenter, 27 year old married man of 654 Egan Street, died in Schumpert Sanitarium at 5:45 a.m. Monday, exactly three days after Jo Ann Raspante, 19, of Bossier City, had sent four bullets coursing through his body because, she said, "he broke his promise to marry me."

In the Caddo Parish jail where she was lodged on charges of murder, Miss Raspante late Monday told a Times reporter she still was no sorry she shot Carpenter. Previously she had said Carpenter was the father of her four-month-old baby boy and that "any woman in my place would have done the same thing."

Services Today

Funeral serices for Carpenter will be held at 2 p.m. today at the St. Stanislaus Catholic church at Bordelonville, La., with the Rev. Father Besselaar officiating. Interment will be in the cemetery there. The body will be taken to Bordelonville at 9 a.m. today by the Wellman Funeral Home.

Carpenter is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mercedes Bordelon Carpenter; his father, J. C. Carpenter; two brothers, Steve E. Carpenter of Shreveport and J. N. Carpenter, Gainesville, Texas; three sisters, Mrs. E. A. Wells and the Misses Billie and

Descendants of Isaac Carpenter, Sr.

Johnnie Mae Carpenter, all of Shreveport.

Steve Carpenter, brother of the dead man, was questioned in the office of Doctor Butler Monday afternoon. He recounted his story of how Miss Raspante had come to the United Gas Company garage at Spring and Fannin streets last Friday morning and shot his brother as he prepared to leave for work with a pipeline crew. He told of wresting the .32 caliber automatic pistol from Miss Raspante's hands and of accompanying his brother to the hospital.

En route to the hospital, Steve Carpenter said, his brother asked "why did she shoot me?"

Not Before Jury

The case was not brought before the Caddo Parish grand jury, which adjourned yesterday. Before it is brought before the jury, Doctor Butler must complete his investigation of the case and submit a report to the District Attorney James U. Galloway. District Attorney Galloway then may or may not order a special session of the jury to review the case.

Witnesses in the case who remain to be questioned by Doctor Butler are Paul T. Burroughs, 619 Topeka street; T. R. Haynes, 231 Caddo street; O. D. Cox, 110 West 78th street; W. B. Eubanks, 260 Stoner avenue; H. D. Richardson, United Gas Company, and Louis Young, 1125 Highland avenue.

Miss Raspante told a Times reporter the day she shot Carpenter that she had met him in a cafe in Bossier City more than a year ago.

She told of an alleged courtship on the part of the man throughout the month of March and during the first week of April, 1935.

"During all that time he told me he loved me and promised to marry me," the girl said. "I loved him deeply and trusted him until he left me. He should have married me."

Miss Raspante said she informed Carpenter of her baby when it arrived last December. She said "he wouldn't reason with me."

Respiratory Complications Claim Life of Jo Ann Raspante's Baby

The six-months-old baby named by Jo Ann Raspante, 19-year-old Bossier city girl, as the son of the man she killed in a downtown garage here Friday morning, April 17, died in Charity hospital at 5:25 p.m. Monday.

The brunette, young mother, who is charged with murder for the slaying of Norwood Carpenter, 27, married man, and who is free on a $3,000 bond furnished by friends, could not be located for a statement Monday night.

Morris Raspante, the child, died of what attendants said were complications of respiratory organs. He was brought to the hospital at noon Monday and died late in the afternoon.

Relatives of Miss Raspante said Monday night the baby had been kept at the family home in Meridian quarters, Bossier City, for the past several weeks and that it had been ill on several occasions. They said Miss Raspante took the child to a doctor once and that Monday, when the child grew worse, she took him to the hospital.

Norwood Carpenter was fatally wounded at the United Gas company garage in the business section of Shreveport when, early one morning, Miss Raspante fired four bullets into his body as he prepared to leave the building for work on a pipeline. She was preceded in death by the love of her life, Lewis Edward Carpenter; her beloved parents, David Benjamin Tilley and Jeanette Vanada "Nettie" Tilley, nee Lester; her sisters and forever friends; Barbara Cornet, Marjorie Cloud and Johnnie Nevils.

Edith was born January 2, 1929, in Alexandria, Louisiana. She was the third of six children.

Descendants of Isaac Carpenter, Sr.

Growing up during the Great Depression, her childhood was spent on a family farm where she enjoyed carefree, happy days with her siblings. It is while helping her parents with the provision of food and clothing, homegrown and homemade, that she acquired valuable life lessons. She developed a foundation of faith, optimism and determination that she would retain for the rest of her life.

Her Bolton High School weekends in Alexandria were spent at the USO Center. Along with a couple of girlfriends, she spent many hours dancing with soldiers who were destined to begin their tour of duty in WWII. There were marriage proposals but Edith made no promises.

After the War, Edith did make a promise to returning soldier, Lewis Edward Carpenter. February 24, 1947 she became a devoted wife. They would go on to have six children and they were seldom separated during their 44 years of marriage. Edith spent thirty-one years as Lewis' secretary and business partner. Together they owned and operated their own oil field service and production companies. Their weekends were usually spent fishing at their Toledo Bend Lakehouse with family and friends.

Lewis died in 1991 and Edith deeply grieved her loss. But she was a woman of faith and with the support of family, her church congregation and friends, she regained her determination and optimism. Her Sunday School class was very close to her heart and she loved the Lord.

For the next 32 years, Edith enjoyed quilting, gardening, traveling, reading, and swimming. She especially enjoyed family reunions and having her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren always near. With perseverance and great courage, she maintained her independence into her final days, enjoying her home and staying connected using her iPad and iPhone.

Pallbearers will be her grandsons Jonathan Breaux, Cody Musgrove, Jim Van Breemen, Brian Carpenter, Lewis Carpenter II, Benjamin Hebert. Honorary pallbearers will be Charles Tilley, DW Tilley, Robert Carpenter, Todd Carpenter, Marion Burley, Timothy Breaux, Bryan McLain, Joel Hebert.

The Carpenter family extends their heartfelt appreciation for the amazing care given to Mom during her last days at The Carpenter House-St Joseph Hospice and to her very special in-home caretakers; Jackie Guidry, Sharon Kenny and Madeline Snead.

To her great-niece, Donna Carraway, the dedication and love you have given Mom over the years was such a comfort to her and all family members. Thank you. With grace and compassion, they provided for her every need and were there when we needed them most.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the First Baptist Church, Broussard, LA.
